GENEROSITY WORDS ACTIVITY

We all want to receive Generous Words from others. God tells us to build up one another because He loves us. It's best for everyone when words are generous and encouraging. Sometimes, we tend to use our not-so-generous words with the people closest to us: our family. This activity will help create a culture of kindness in your home and also provide an opportunity for each family member to express their love and gratitude for one another.

DIRECTIONS

- 1. To kick off this activity, print and cut out the Generous Words cards provided.
- 2. Encourage each family member to write a Generous Word or uplifting message about another family member. It could be a compliment, a note of appreciation, or just a memory that made you smile.
- 3. Place notes in the jar throughout the week.
- 4. Set time aside at the end of the week to gather as a family and read the notes. You can take turns picking a note from the jar and reading it aloud.
